

Homework map: Year 7

Homework week	Task
16th September	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
7th October	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
4th November	Meanwhile, elsewhere. Complete the Norman women research task sheet.
25th November	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
6th January	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
27th January	Meanwhile, elsewhere. Research the Harrying of the North and present the information as a children's story book.
24th February	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
4th May	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
8th June	Meanwhile, elsewhere. Research another area of England that was hit by the Black Death. Write a report on what happened there and how it changed people's lives.
29th June	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
Useful resources and websites	The following websites have good quality, reliable information: BBC History, BBC Bitesize, Spartacus education, History learning site

Homework map: Year 8

Homework week	Task
16th September	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
7th October	Meanwhile, elsewhere. Research the Globe Theatre in Elizabethan England. What was it like and how was it used to control people.
4th November	. Research Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
25th November	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
6th January	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
27th January	Meanwhile, elsewhere. Research the Piece Hall in Halifax. Why is it such a significant building in the area.
24th February	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
4th May	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
8th June	Meanwhile, elsewhere. Research a local suffragette and tell her story.
29th June	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
Useful resources and websites	The following websites have good quality, reliable information: BBC History, BBC Bitesize, Spartacus education, History learning site

Homework map:

Year 9

Homework week	Task
16th September	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
7th October	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
4th November	Meanwhile, elsewhere. The impact of the First World War on the British Empire.
25th November	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
6th January	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
27th January	Meanwhile, elsewhere. Research the lives of the Desert Rats fighting in Africa during the Second World War.
24th February	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
4th May	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
8th June	Meanwhile, elsewhere. Research the campaign for Nuclear Disarmament.
29th June	Revise the directed area of your knowledge organiser ready for a low stakes quiz in class. Make sure you can define and spell key words along with being able to describe key places, people and events from the time period.
Useful resources and websites	The following websites have good quality, reliable information:  BBC History, BBC Bitesize, Spartacus education, History learning site